Dear George:

We shall be very pleased to have [redacted] [redacted] deliver a talk on "Guerrilla Warfare" to the National War College and I am sure the date you suggest, 4 April 1950, will be satisfactory. I am asking him to make his arrangements direct with you.

NOTE FOR RECORD: Basic ltr dtd 2/10/50 reads: The National War College is anxious to obtain the services of [redacted] to deliver a talk at the National War College on "Guerrilla Warfare." We have been hoping that he would be able to come down on Tuesday, 4 April 1950, for this purpose. I would appreciate it very much if you would make him available to us for this purpose since unquestionably he is the best qualified person to speak on that subject in this general area.
